Johnston felt that approval of such a briefing should be given by the Director, Mr. Dulles stated that (1) he would look over Colonel Johnston's outline (which DD/P now has); (2) if the Joint Chiefs would make a request for this briefing, he would be inclined to approve it.

e. Briefly discussed a conversation he had with [redacted] on Saturday concerning State's use of the recent BW piece appearing in the NEW YORK TIMES and that contrary to [redacted] statement that the Department had instructed its people to play this down that they were, in fact, making use of this article.
